What is the Electronic Office?

The e-office is a website that provides maximum security and confidentiality in compliance with the requirements of Law 11/2007 on the electronic access of citizens to public services.

The e-office of the University of Barcelona is a website intended to enable the university community, members of the public, the private sector and other bodies to exercise their right of access to UB information, services and procedures telematically, ensuring the integrity and accuracy of the website's content.

Who is the E-office intended for?

The e-office is intended for the university community, members of the public, the private sector and other organisations that want or need to interact with the University of Barcelona by Internet.

What do you need in order to use the E-office?

To use the e-office and all of its available services, you need to have a browser installed, such as Internet Explorer or Mozilla Firefox, and for some services a digital certificate.
