Conformity emails received, after sending signed the declarations of absence of conflict of interest by all the members, accepting the constitution of the Selection Commission, the specific evaluation criteria for the two evaluation phases, and the date proposed for the interview with the candidate:

Dear Enric,

Thank you for this information and for preparing the assessment criteria. I have no objection on the list of items and weighting that you propose, which seem sensible to me for a position in Applied Economics.

As for the dates of the interview, the last week of November and the first week of December are not the best time for me, since I teach and have other commitments in Reading, but I could come to Barcelona on 27/11, 29/11 or 5/12. I could also make 28/11, but I would have to move a lecture, so that would not be ideal.

Best wishes,

Davide Castellani

Dear Enrique,

I am fine with the weighting that you indicated.
29 November fits my agenda (as would 2-3 December).

Kind regards,

Jolanda

Dear Enrique, I could fairly easily fit in with others for those weeks, but I have a preference for Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays. But it is more important to find a common date, like Friday 29 November. I have looked at the criteria with interest. I have no problem working with Enrique's suggestion.

Best
Andrew

Dear all,

Thank you very much for your quick responses. According to them, the Friday 29th of November seems to fit to everybody preferences except, perhaps, the ones of Jacint Jordana who prefers the first days of December to the last days of November.

So Jacint, could you manage to also come to Barcelona on Friday 29th of November?
