Assessment criteria for position UB-LE-212-015

FIRST PHASE: Assessment of the documents provided by the candidates (100/200)

1. Research (30/100)

The committee will especially consider the quality of research work and dissemination of results (indexed scientific publications, books and book chapters, other publications), the participation in research projects with competitive call, relevant contributions to conferences, as well as research stays at distinguished universities or research centers.

2. Knowledge transfer (10/100)

The main items to consider in this section include the participation in research projects under contract with industry, filed patents (especially those under exploitation), and the participation in spin-off companies.

3. Teaching (25/100)

The teaching activity will be assessed mostly through the candidate teaching experience in university courses (including undergraduate, master and graduate), the advisory of research works (doctoral theses, degree and master final projects), the candidate quality of teaching activity (feedback from students, awards), the pedagogical training of the candidate, its participation in dissemination activities, as well as other merits like the preparation of original teaching materials.

4. Detachment from hiring university (10/100)

A minimum period of 2 years of detachment is required to score in this point. This period can be cumulative, but only stays above 3 months can be considered in the computation of the period total duration. This item only scores 10 or 0; candidates that obtained their PhDs in a university different from Universitat de Barcelona automatically score 10.

5. Statement of purpose (15/100)

The committee will assess the quality and feasibility of the candidate research and teaching plans.

6. Other merits (10/100)

The committee will consider merits not included in the previous items but relevant for the position profile, like prestigious scholarships (Marie Curie, Ramón y Cajal, Juan de la Cierva, Beatriu de Pinós, etc.) or service activities to both the university and/or the research community.

In this first phase, the committee will not only assess production, but also productivity; that is, production relative to the number of years of research and teaching activity. The adequacy of the merits to the profile of the position will be taken into account.

Cutoff: 60/100

SECOND PHASE: Face-to-face interview with the candidates, maximum 1 hour candidate presentation (without including questions and discussion with the committee) (100/200)

1. Introduction including short presentation of CV.
2. Development of a teaching topic. The candidate will choose a topic of General Physics related with 1st year of undergraduate level.
3. Development of a research topic. The candidate will choose a topic related with the position profile (Materials Science).
4. Questions and discussion with the committee.

Item	Score (out of 100)
Teaching topic (quality, knowledge of the topic)	25
Research topic (quality, knowledge of the topic)	25
Communication skills	25
Ability to understand and answer questions	25

The language of the second phase will be English. Presentations, questions and discussion must all be in English.

Cutoff: 60/100
